

FOUNDATIONS

AUGUST 2023

Welcome to the first edition of our newsletter, designed to keep you informed about the recent developments, initiatives, and success stories within the First Nations Market Housing Fund (FNMHF).

We are excited to share updates on how we are working together to improve housing opportunities for First Nations communities across the nation. Let's dive into the highlights of this quarter:

MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

Dear Valued Members and Stakeholders, welcome to our first edition of Foundations, the First Nations Market Housing Fund's quarterly newsletter. I am thrilled to reach out to you today as the newly appointed CEO of the Fund. It is with great honour that I take on this role, marking an important milestone in the Fund's history. I am delighted to share some exciting updates that reflect our continued evolution and dedication to serving First Nations. [\[READ MORE HERE\]](#)

WHAT'S NEW

Our new website offers a user-friendly interface, providing easy access to valuable resources, funding applications, success stories, and the latest news. Explore www.fnmhf.ca to learn about our diverse range of products and services tailored to empower First Nations communities on their housing journey.

Highlights of the AFN Annual General Assembly

We are excited to share that the Fund had a strong presence at the recent Assembly of First Nations (AFN) Annual General Assembly in July. Our team engaged with community leaders, policymakers, and stakeholders from coast to coast, discussing critical housing issues and exploring innovative solutions. We were inspired by the dedication and passion exhibited during the assembly and look forward to the collaborative efforts ahead.

Upcoming FNHPA National Conference

Mark your calendars for FNHPA's 2nd Annual National Conference, from September 19-21. This event will bring together experts, industry professionals, and community leaders to exchange knowledge, share best practices, and explore emerging trends in housing. Join us as we connect, learn, and build new partnerships to support the housing needs of First Nations communities nationwide.

Board Meeting in B.C.

We are pleased to announce that our next Board Meeting will take place in September in beautiful British Columbia. This gathering will bring together our distinguished Board of Trustees, representing the diversity and strength of First Nations leadership. It will be a pivotal moment for strategic planning, policy discussions, and decision-making that will shape the future of our organization. We are grateful for the dedication of our Board members and their unwavering commitment to advancing the housing aspirations of First Nations communities.

Meet the Team

As we expand our reach and deepen our commitment to serving communities nationwide, we are excited to introduce our new staff members. With a collective wealth of knowledge and expertise, our team is poised to provide exceptional support and guidance to our valued members. Stay tuned for our upcoming newsletter editions, where we will feature profiles of our passionate and talented staff members who bring their unique perspectives and insights to further strengthen our mission.

STAY CONNECTED

We hope this newsletter keeps you informed, inspired, and engaged with the ongoing work of the Fund. Your support and commitment are instrumental in creating sustainable housing solutions for First Nations communities.

Should you have any questions, feedback, or exciting partnership opportunities you'd like to explore, please don't hesitate to reach out to us. We're here to listen and collaborate, and you can contact our team at info@fnmf.ca.

Stay in the loop and never miss a beat by connecting with us on social media. Follow us on social media (links below) for real-time updates, behind-the-scenes glimpses, and thought-provoking content that sparks meaningful conversations within our community.

If you're enjoying the insights and stories we share in this newsletter, why not share the wealth? Invite your friends and colleagues to join our community by subscribing to the newsletter. Together, we can create an even richer exchange of ideas and experiences.

